About Living Wholeness

Living Wholeness is a global Christian community and training organisation focused on God-centred transformation of the whole person.

Rooted in the Christian Wholeness Framework (CWF), it integrates theology and psychology to provide a practical and holistic approach to growth, healing, and relationships.

We are an interdenominational and multicultural movement, equipping individuals, churches, and leaders through training, resources, and shared learning.

Our programmes develop the attitudes, skills, and understanding needed to care for others—empowering people to bring healing and restoration within their own cultures and communities.
